Naaman the Leper

Naaman  was  (captain) of all the  (armies) of the  (king) of  the country  (north) of   was a great and mighty  (man), but he was a leper (2 Kings 5:1). That means he had a terrible skin disease  that could not be cured. In  's  there was a little  Israelite maid who was a  (servant) to  's  (wife). She had great  and trust in  and His prophet Elisha  . She told  ' s that she knew that the prophet  could heal

 (2 Kings 5:2-3).  ' s  told him what the  (Israelite maid) said. Then went to tell his  , who said, "U must  t o

 . " So  brought a (letter) from the  of  to the

of  . It said, "I am sending to U to be cured of his  (leprosy)." The of  cried, "What? Am I  ?

How can I cure a  of  ? When the prophet  (heard) about this, he sent a message that said, "Send the  to me. I will show him that  has a prophet in  ."
