

Authorized to Make Promises

Acts 13:29-33

What Constitutes A Genuine Promise?

- If there is to be a valid promise, there must be a fulfillment
- If there is to be a true fulfillment, there must be power
- If real power is exercised, it had to be authorized
- God has all authority; when He makes promises, we can be assured of their fulfillment
- Therefore, God must be behind a promise for it to be genuine

God's Promises Are:

- Sure
- Full of Hope for the Righteous
- Conditional

Acts 13:29-33

- “Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. 30 But God raised Him from the dead. 31 He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. 32 And we declare to you glad tidings--that promise which was made to the fathers. 33 God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm: 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You’”

God's Promises Are Sure

- Sure - “Faithful, enduring, everlasting, without end, incapable of not being fulfilled”

God's Promises Are Sure

- God cannot lie
  - Heb. 6:13-18 - “For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, 14 saying, Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you. 15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men indeed swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute. 17 Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, 18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us.”
  - Titus 1:2 - “in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began”

God's Promises Are Sure

- God has always kept His promises to men
  - Gen. 6:17-18 - “And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die. 18 But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark-you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.”
  - Gen. 17:19 - “Then God said: “No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him.”

God's Promises Are Sure

- God has always kept His promises to men
  - Rom. 4:20-21 - “He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.”

God's Promises Are Sure

- God kept His promise of salvation through Jesus
  - Gen. 12:3 - “I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”
  - Gal. 4:4-5 - “But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, 5 to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.”

God's Promises Are Sure

- God kept his promise to Jesus
  - Psalm 16:10 - “For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.”
  - Acts 2:31-32 - “He, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. 32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses.”
  - Rom. 6:5 - “For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection”

God's Promises Are Full Of Hope For The Righteous

- Our hope rests upon the promises of God
  - Heb. 6:18-19 - “that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us. 19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil”
